

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

ISRAELI POSTDOCTORAL SCHOLARS PROGRAM 2022-2023

Dr. Adi Biram
Life Sciences / Immunology

The Zuckerman Israeli Postdoctoral Scholars Program provides additional support to Israeli PhD graduates who have been accepted to a postdoctoral program with a stipend at an American university. Preferably, candidates should apply to a university that provides more specialized training than they would find in Israel.

In the 2022-2023 academic year, 10 Israeli postdoctoral scholarships will be given out to 7 participating universities: Bar-Ilan University, Ben-Gurion University of the Negev, University of Haifa, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Technion – Israel Institute of Technology, Tel Aviv University and Weizmann Institute of Science.

Four out of the 10 scholarships will be reserved for women.

DURATION, FUNDING AND ELIGIBILITY

- Zuckerman Israeli Postdoctoral Scholarships are for up to two years.
- Zuckerman Israeli Postdoctoral Scholars receive a stipend of $20,000 US per academic year, plus a $5,000 US travel allowance to return to Israel once per academic year during their postdoctoral appointment.
- Candidates must hold a Ph.D. degree from one of the 7 participating universities, or if still studying for a Ph.D., must submit their Ph.D. thesis before October 1, 2022.
- Candidates who commenced their postdoctoral position before October 2021 are not eligible to apply.
- Candidates must be accepted to a postdoctoral program at an American university or research institute that includes a stipend for work and study. They must obtain consent from a potential hosting supervisor at that university or research institute.
